HACAWA, '96

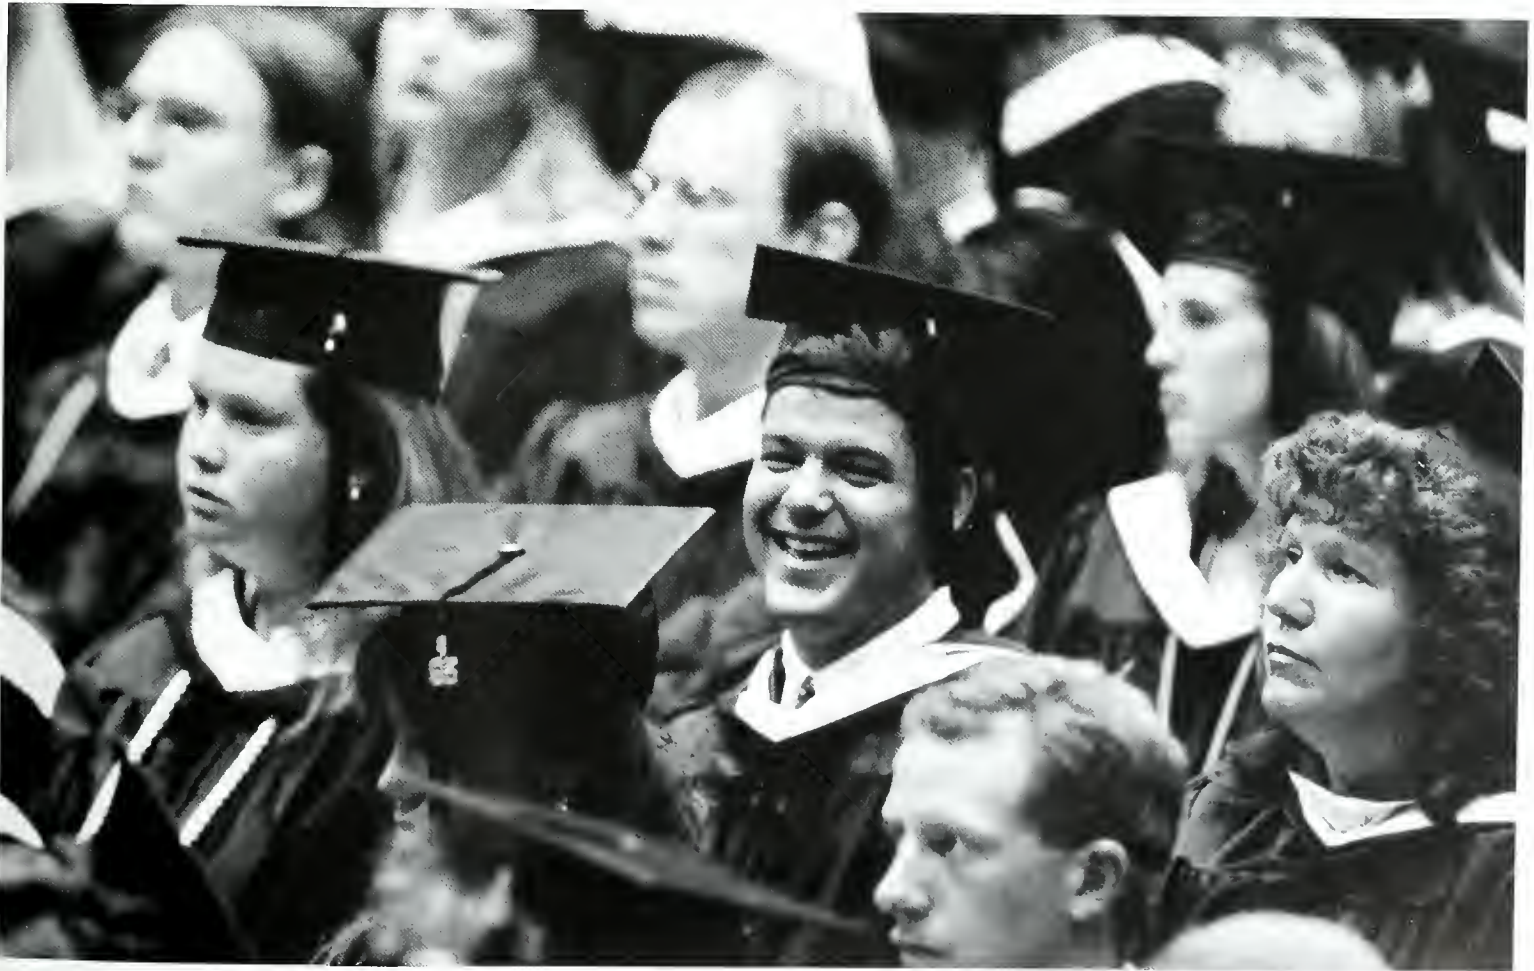

Angie Earnhardt, editor

Spirit can be found in many different ways on Lenoir-Rhyne's campus. Each of us possesses our own type of spirit, which motivates us to meet the demands of academic life or participate in athletic and extra-curricular activities.

The Spirit of '96 is a representation of how the community of LR pulled together to create school spirit. Spirit comes from the interaction of people using their abilities and enthusiasm to make a community work.

Whatever form that spirit may take — a football game, graduation, intramurals, studying for an exam, or opening night of a play — this has been a year of spirit. As St. Paul tells us in his Second Letter to Timothy, "God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline." In that spirit we have spent this 105th year at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

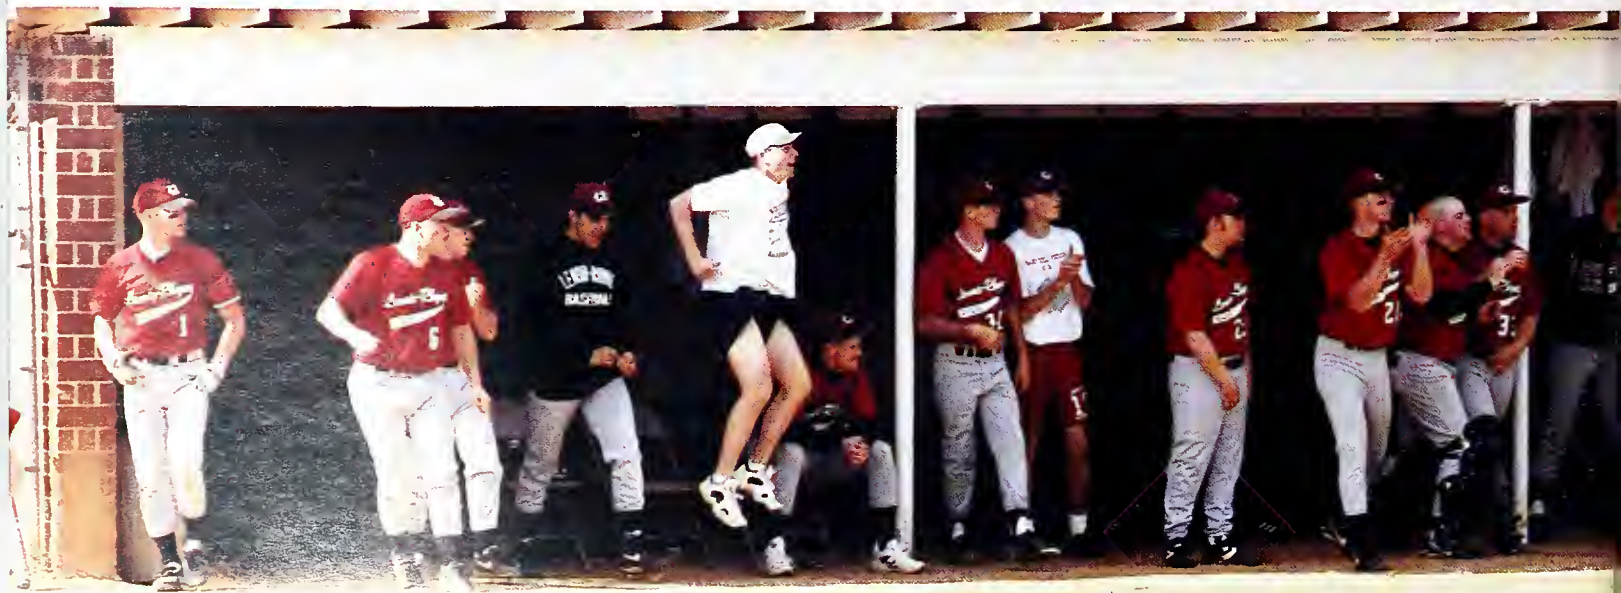

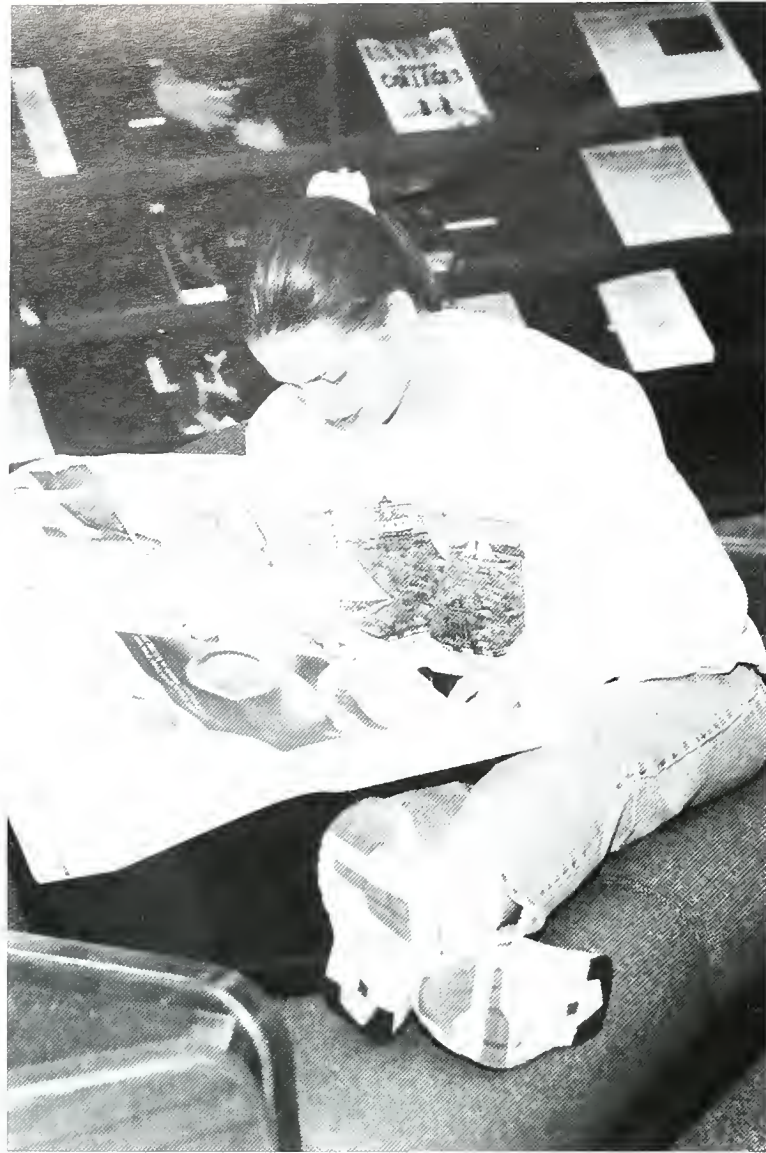

Our spirit is wrapped in our cast of characters.

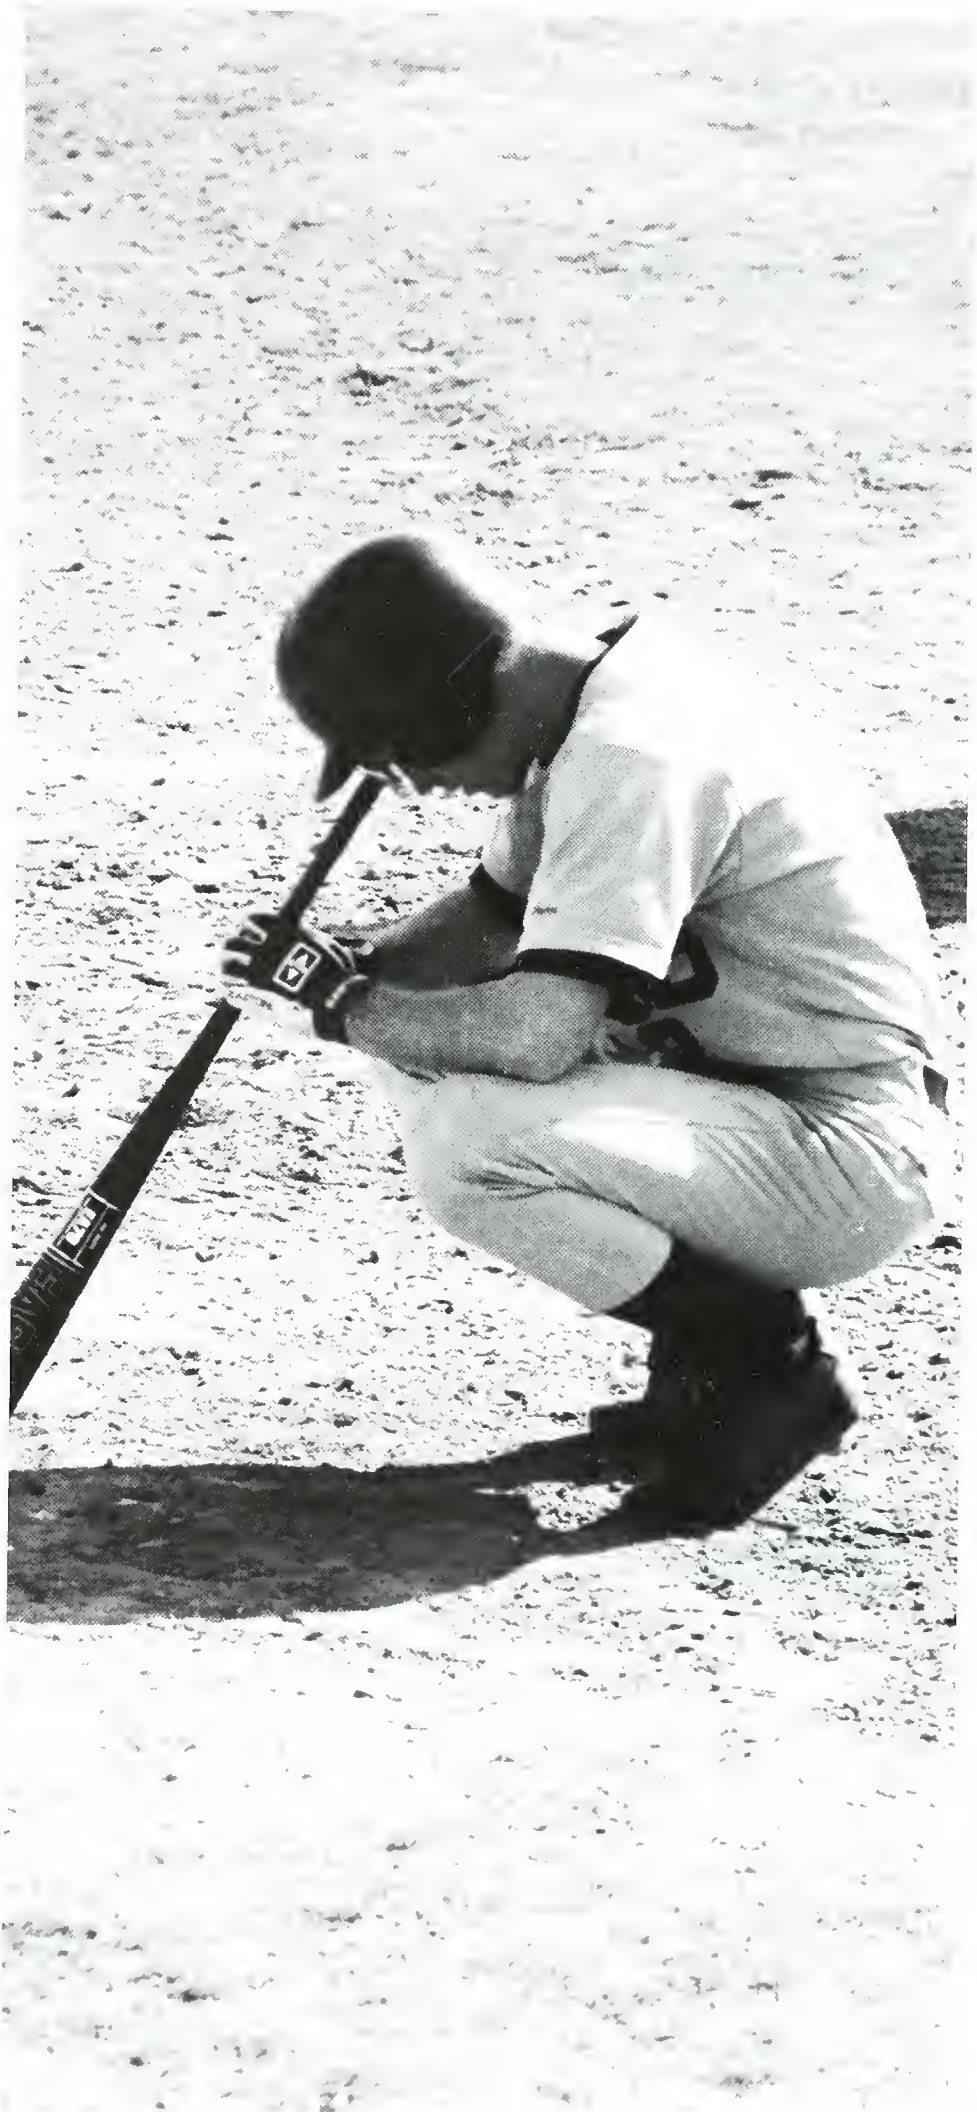

BEARS

Spirit surges through quiet moments as well as the more vocal ones. It is in the sober time of reflection that our spirits are revived.

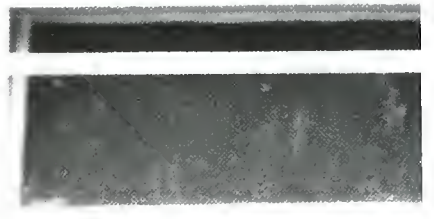

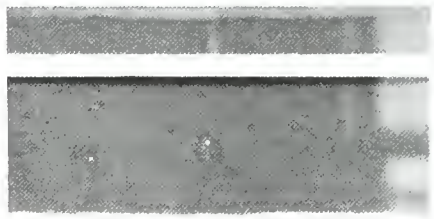

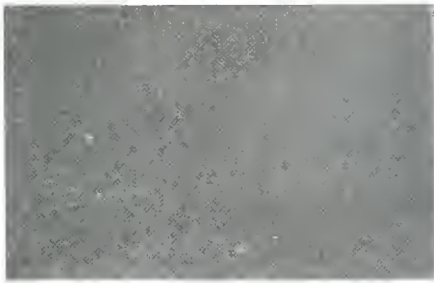

SPIRIT OF HOMECOMING

Graduates represent the meaning of spirit by being individuals who have demonstrated a desire to learn and to succeed.

At graduation, three honorary degrees were conferred: A doctor of divinity degree to Dr. Carl Ficken, Jr.; a doctor of humane letters degree to Mr. Paul H. Broyhill (seen above); and a doctor of divinity degree to Reverend Bill R. Hoffner (seen opposite below).

Our spirit as Bears began with Prologue.

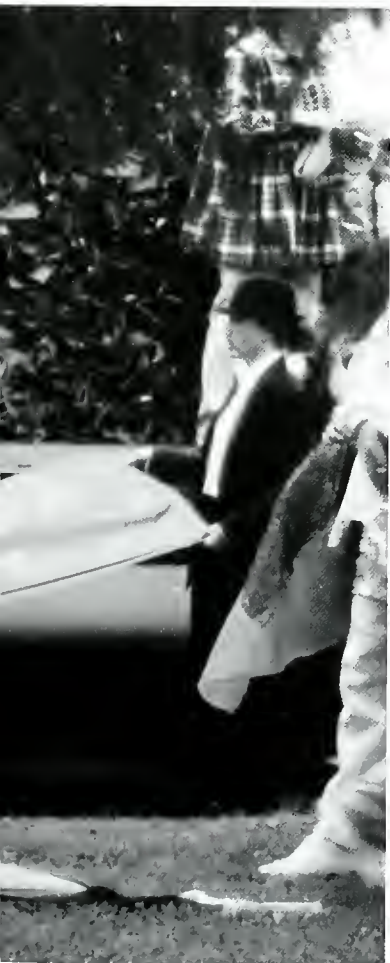

During Homecoming the college community joins together to ignite the spirit of our institution with enthusiasm and loyalty.

Athletics draws from us a spirit of vivacity, courage, vigor, and enthusiasm.

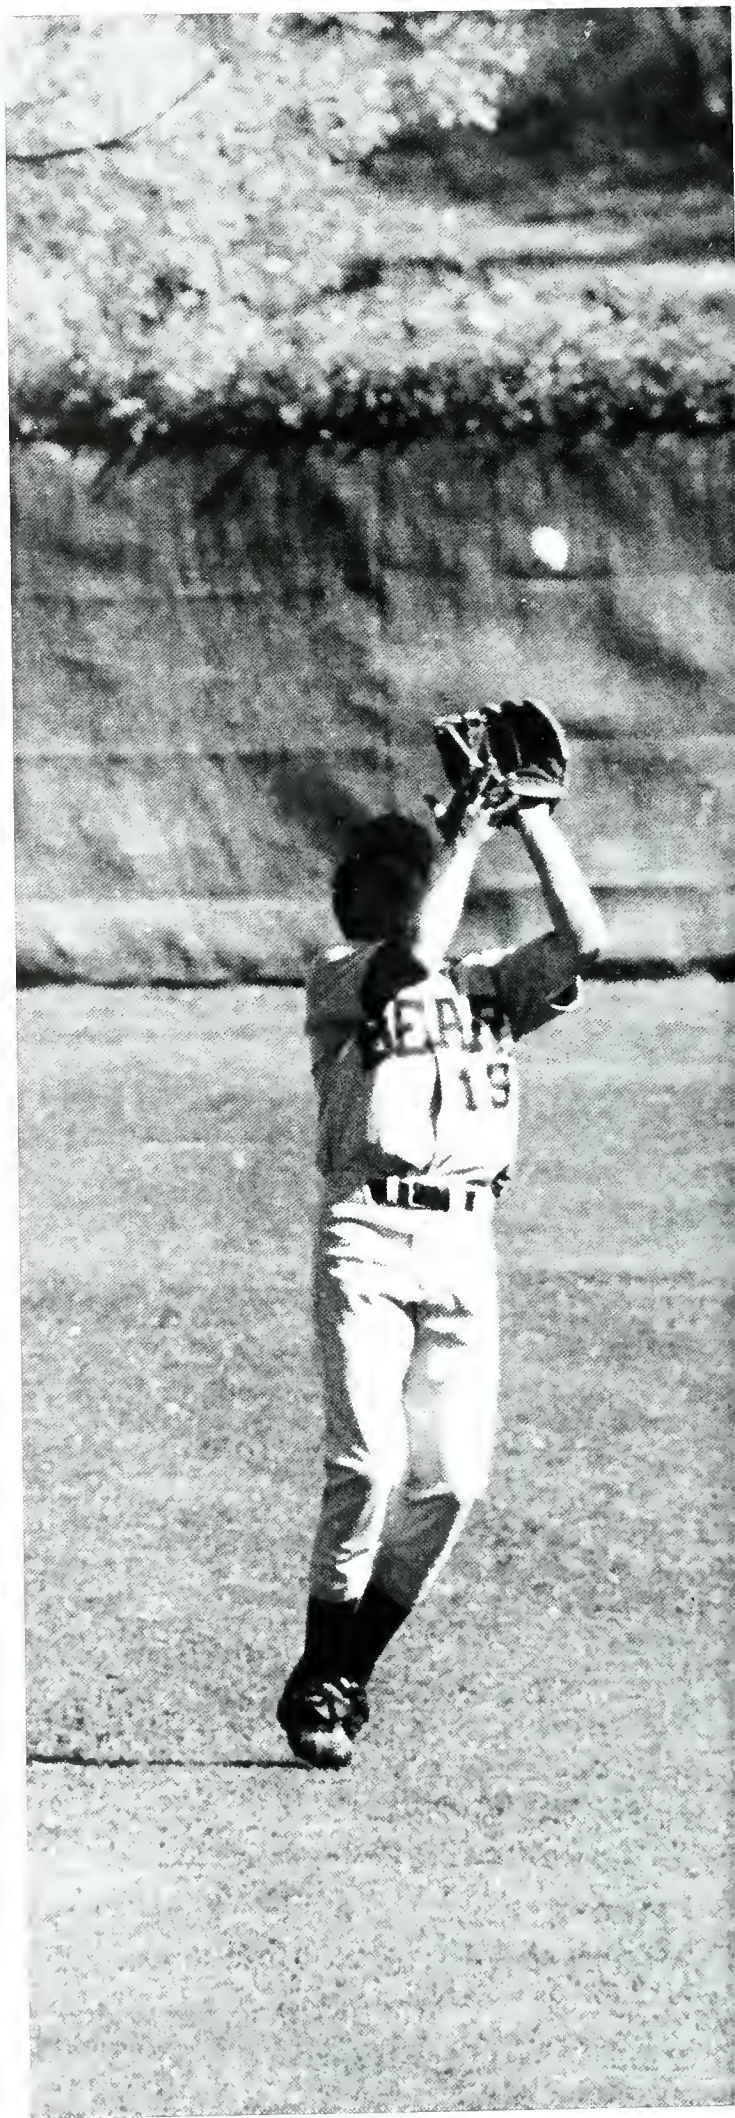

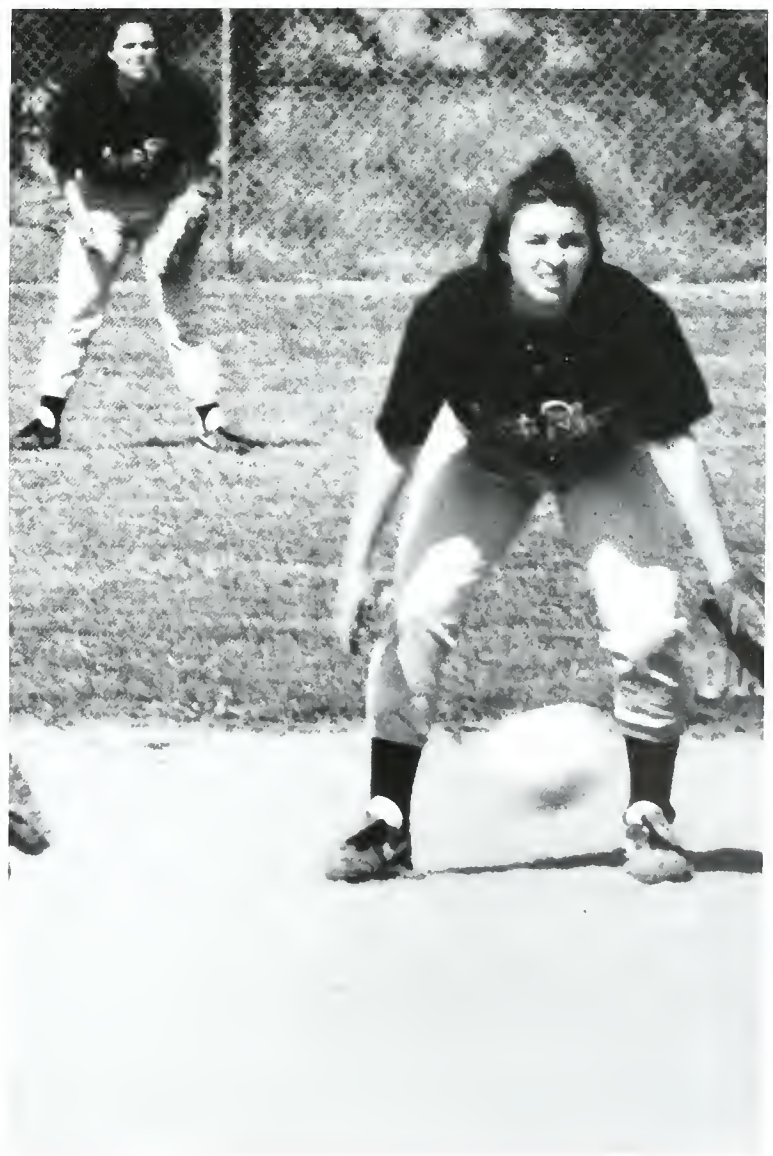

Spirit is alive and well in robust moments, when the common good triumphs over the needs of a single person or of a few members. It is in those moments of high joy and great delight that we sense the spirit surging through us as we meld our talents into a single objective.

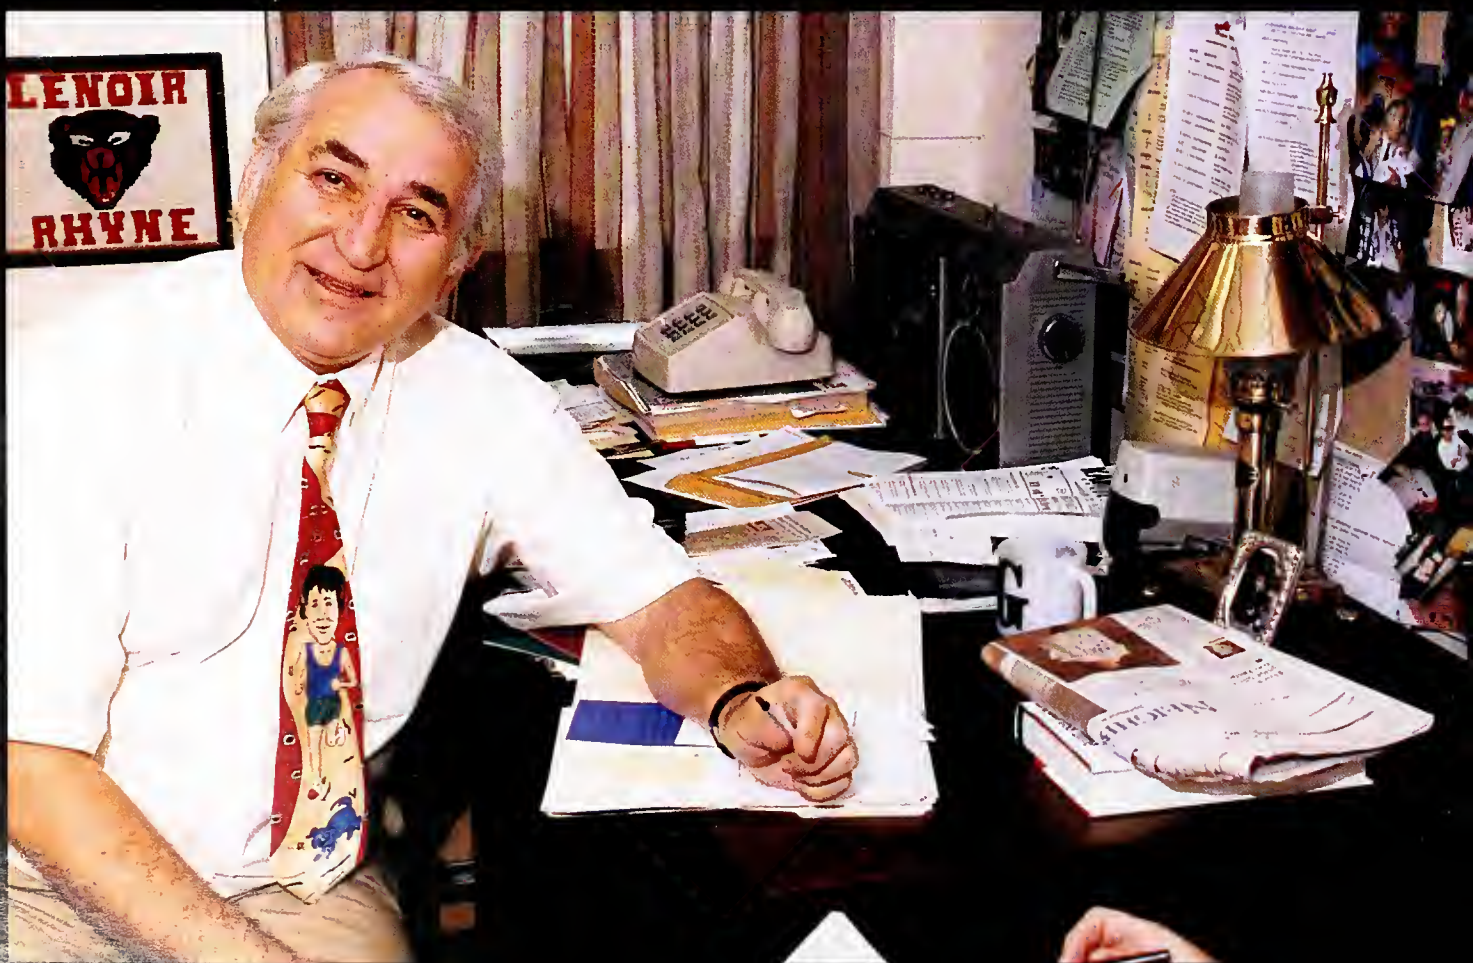

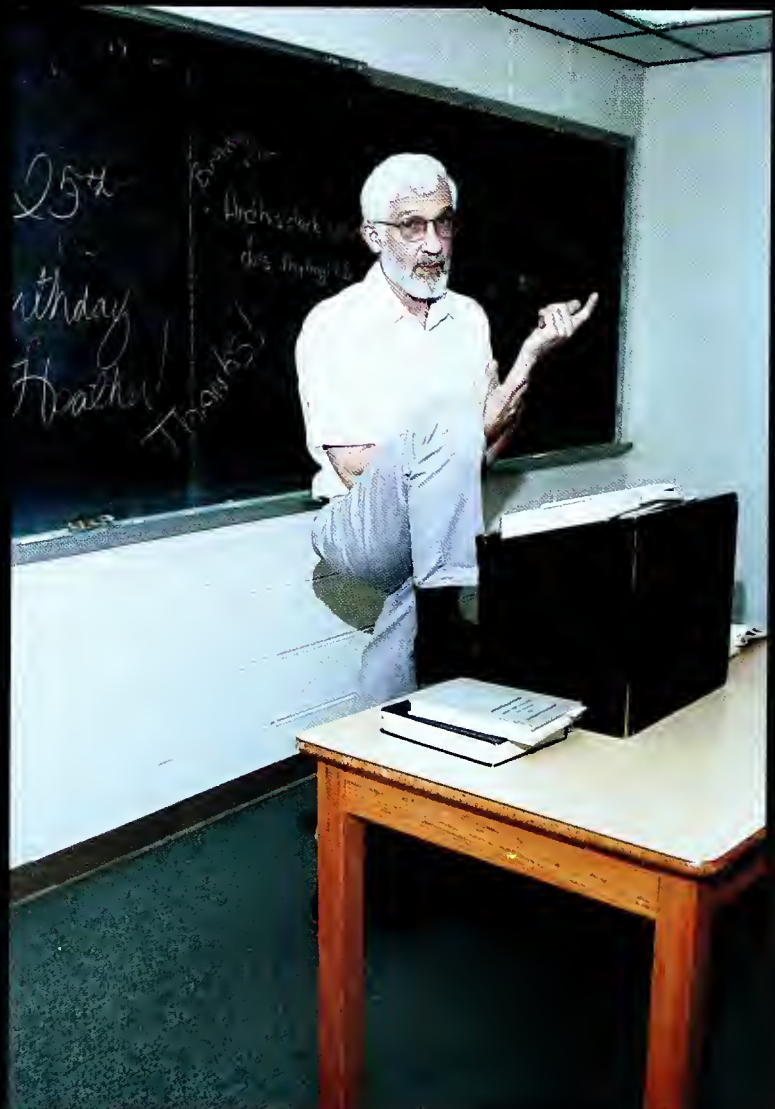

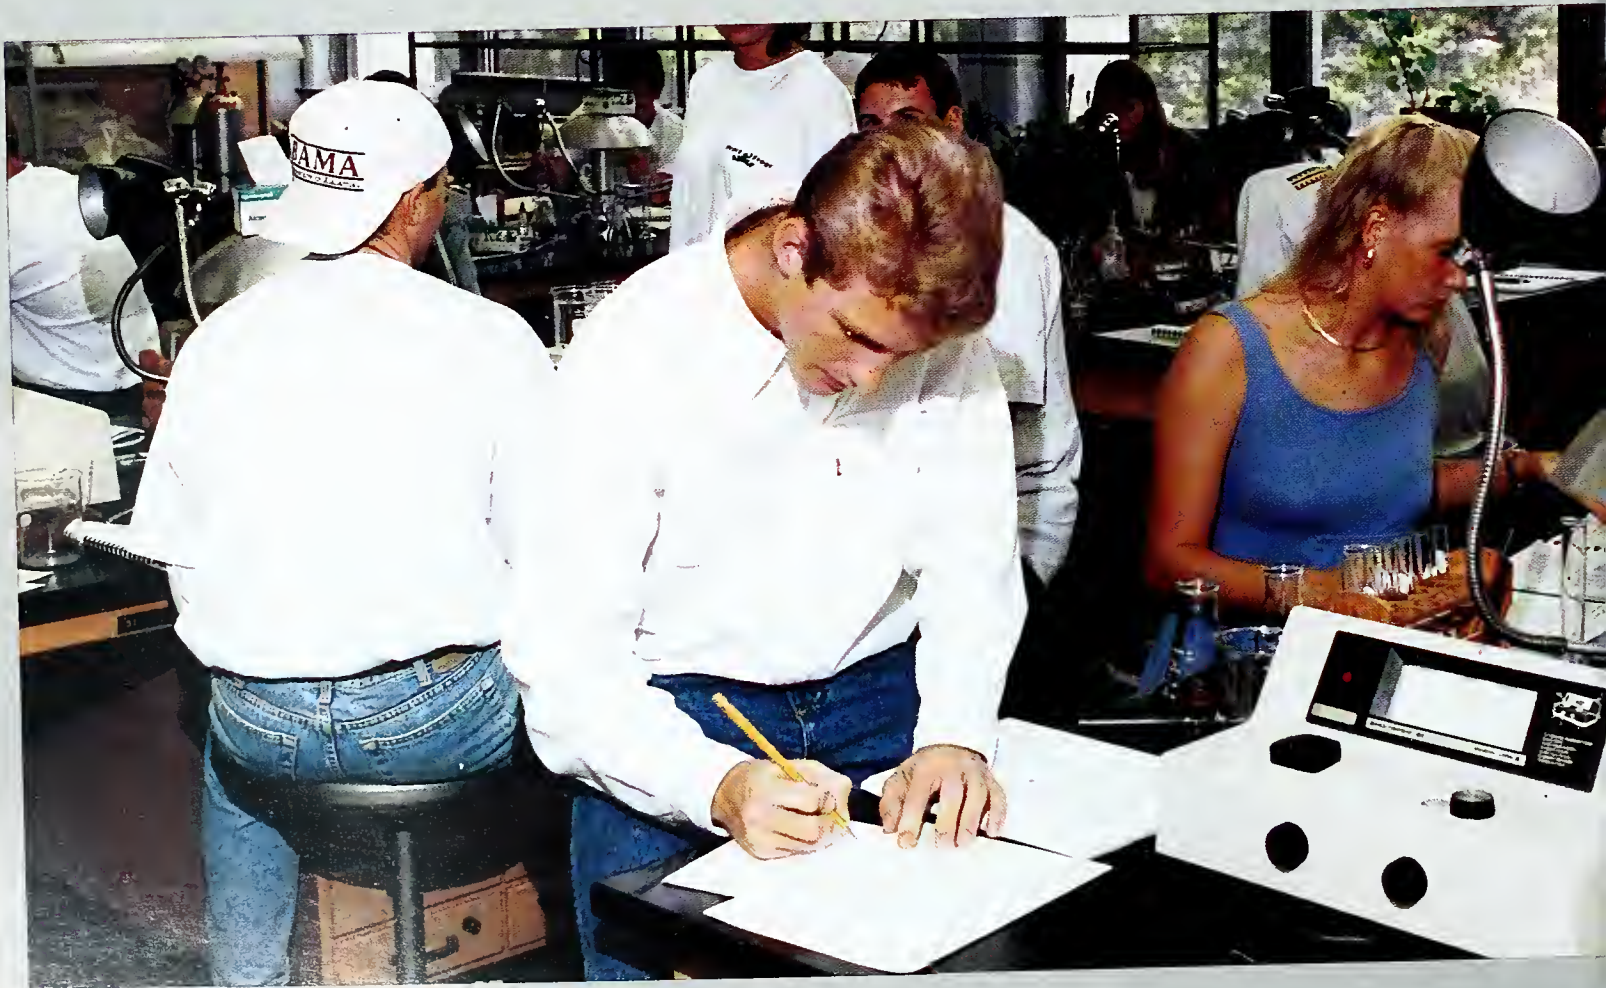

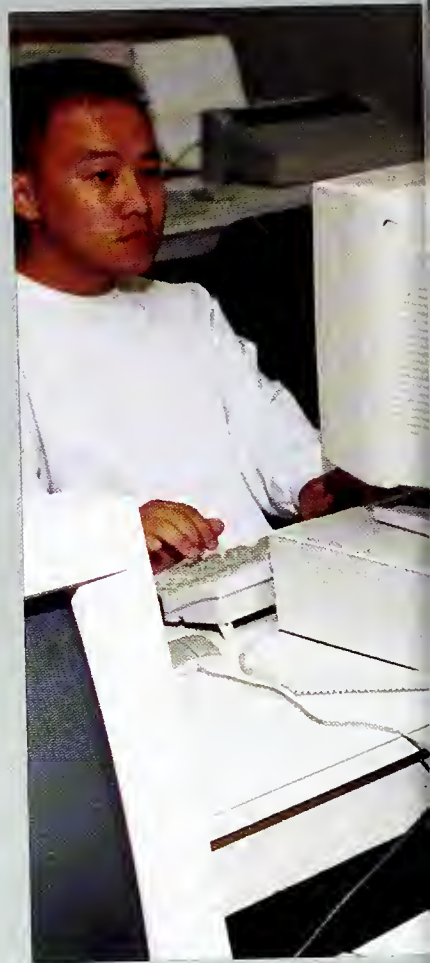

Through academics we learn that our spirit comes from our thoughts, will, and consciousness that exists separate from our physical state.

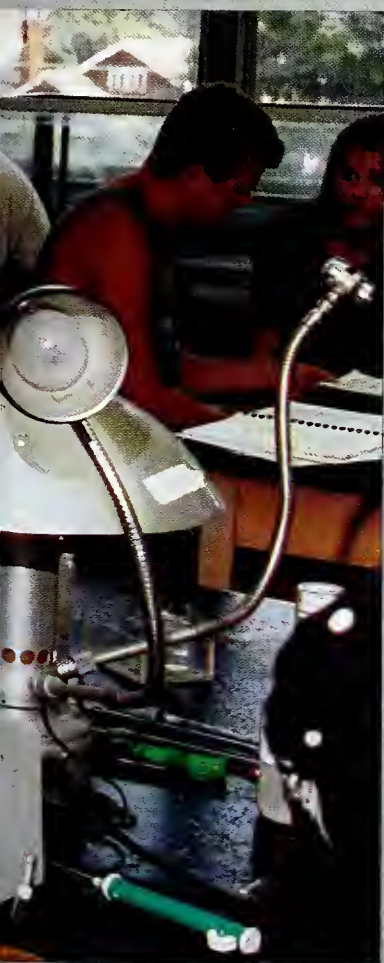

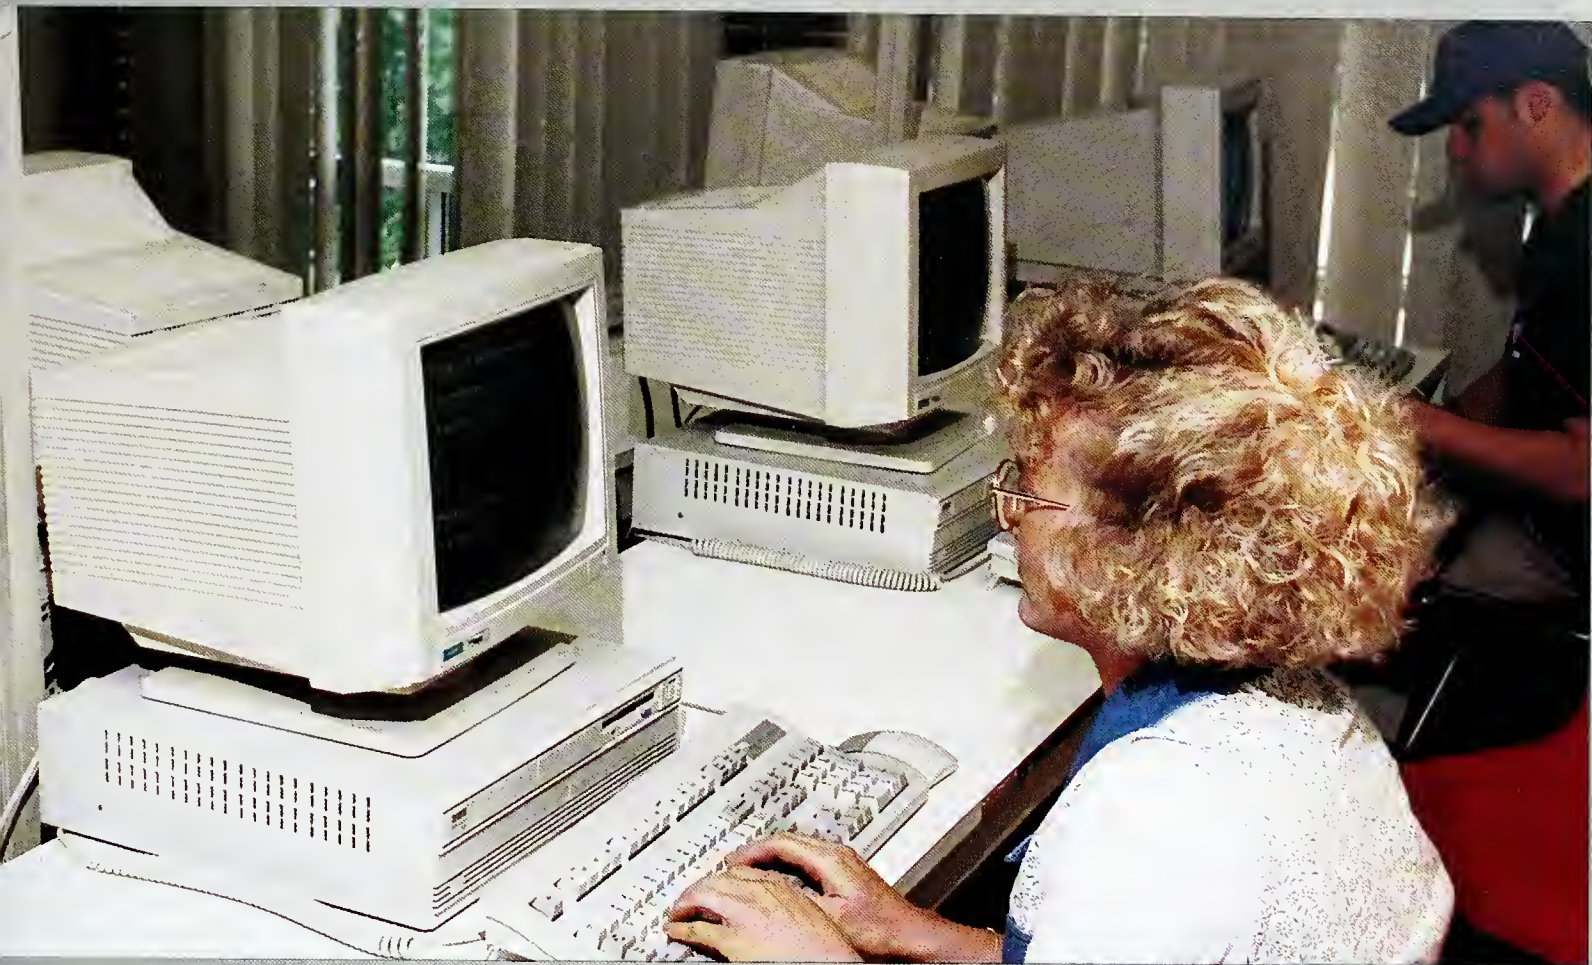

Our creative ideas allow us to express spirit through feelings and emotions by using our abilities in a unique way apart from our intellect.

DEDICATION

The theme of the 1996 HACAWA is "spirit." The Spirit of '96.

In looking for a recipient for the 1996 Dedication, we were looking for an individual who personifies the spirit of Lenoir-Rhyne College and well reflects the qualities and attributes of this institution, now in its 105th year.

Several members of the Lenoir-Rhyne community quickly came to mind, and the fact there were numerous individuals who would merit this recognition is indeed a credit to these individuals personally and to the college community as well.

We wanted to choose an individual most community members would feel good about and who would be proud and pleased to have this person represent the college and to stand for its virtues and accomplishments.

The fact that our recipient has received the yearbook dedication at an earlier time did not discourage us from selecting this person. There are no working rules to forbid an individual from being the recipient of a HACAWA Dedication more than once.

Our recipient's years of service were clearly a factor in our choice. The department of which our recipient is a member has grown into one of the largest on campus with many majors. Our recipient has been a bedrock of that growth.

And in years past, when offered more lucrative positions in the private sector, our recipient has remained with Lenoir-Rhyne and continued to contribute to its growth.

A deeply sincere person, a gentle person, an individual with high standards who has insisted on the same high standards from students. Several generations have studied at Lenoir-Rhyne under his tutelage and today attest to his influence and his teaching as factors in their individual success. To them our recipient was simply "the Man."

A senior faculty member, a conscientious human being, a person of integrity and principle, and a gentleman who shares his laughter with us, that twinkle in his eye, and the love of humor. He is a rare jewel in the crown of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

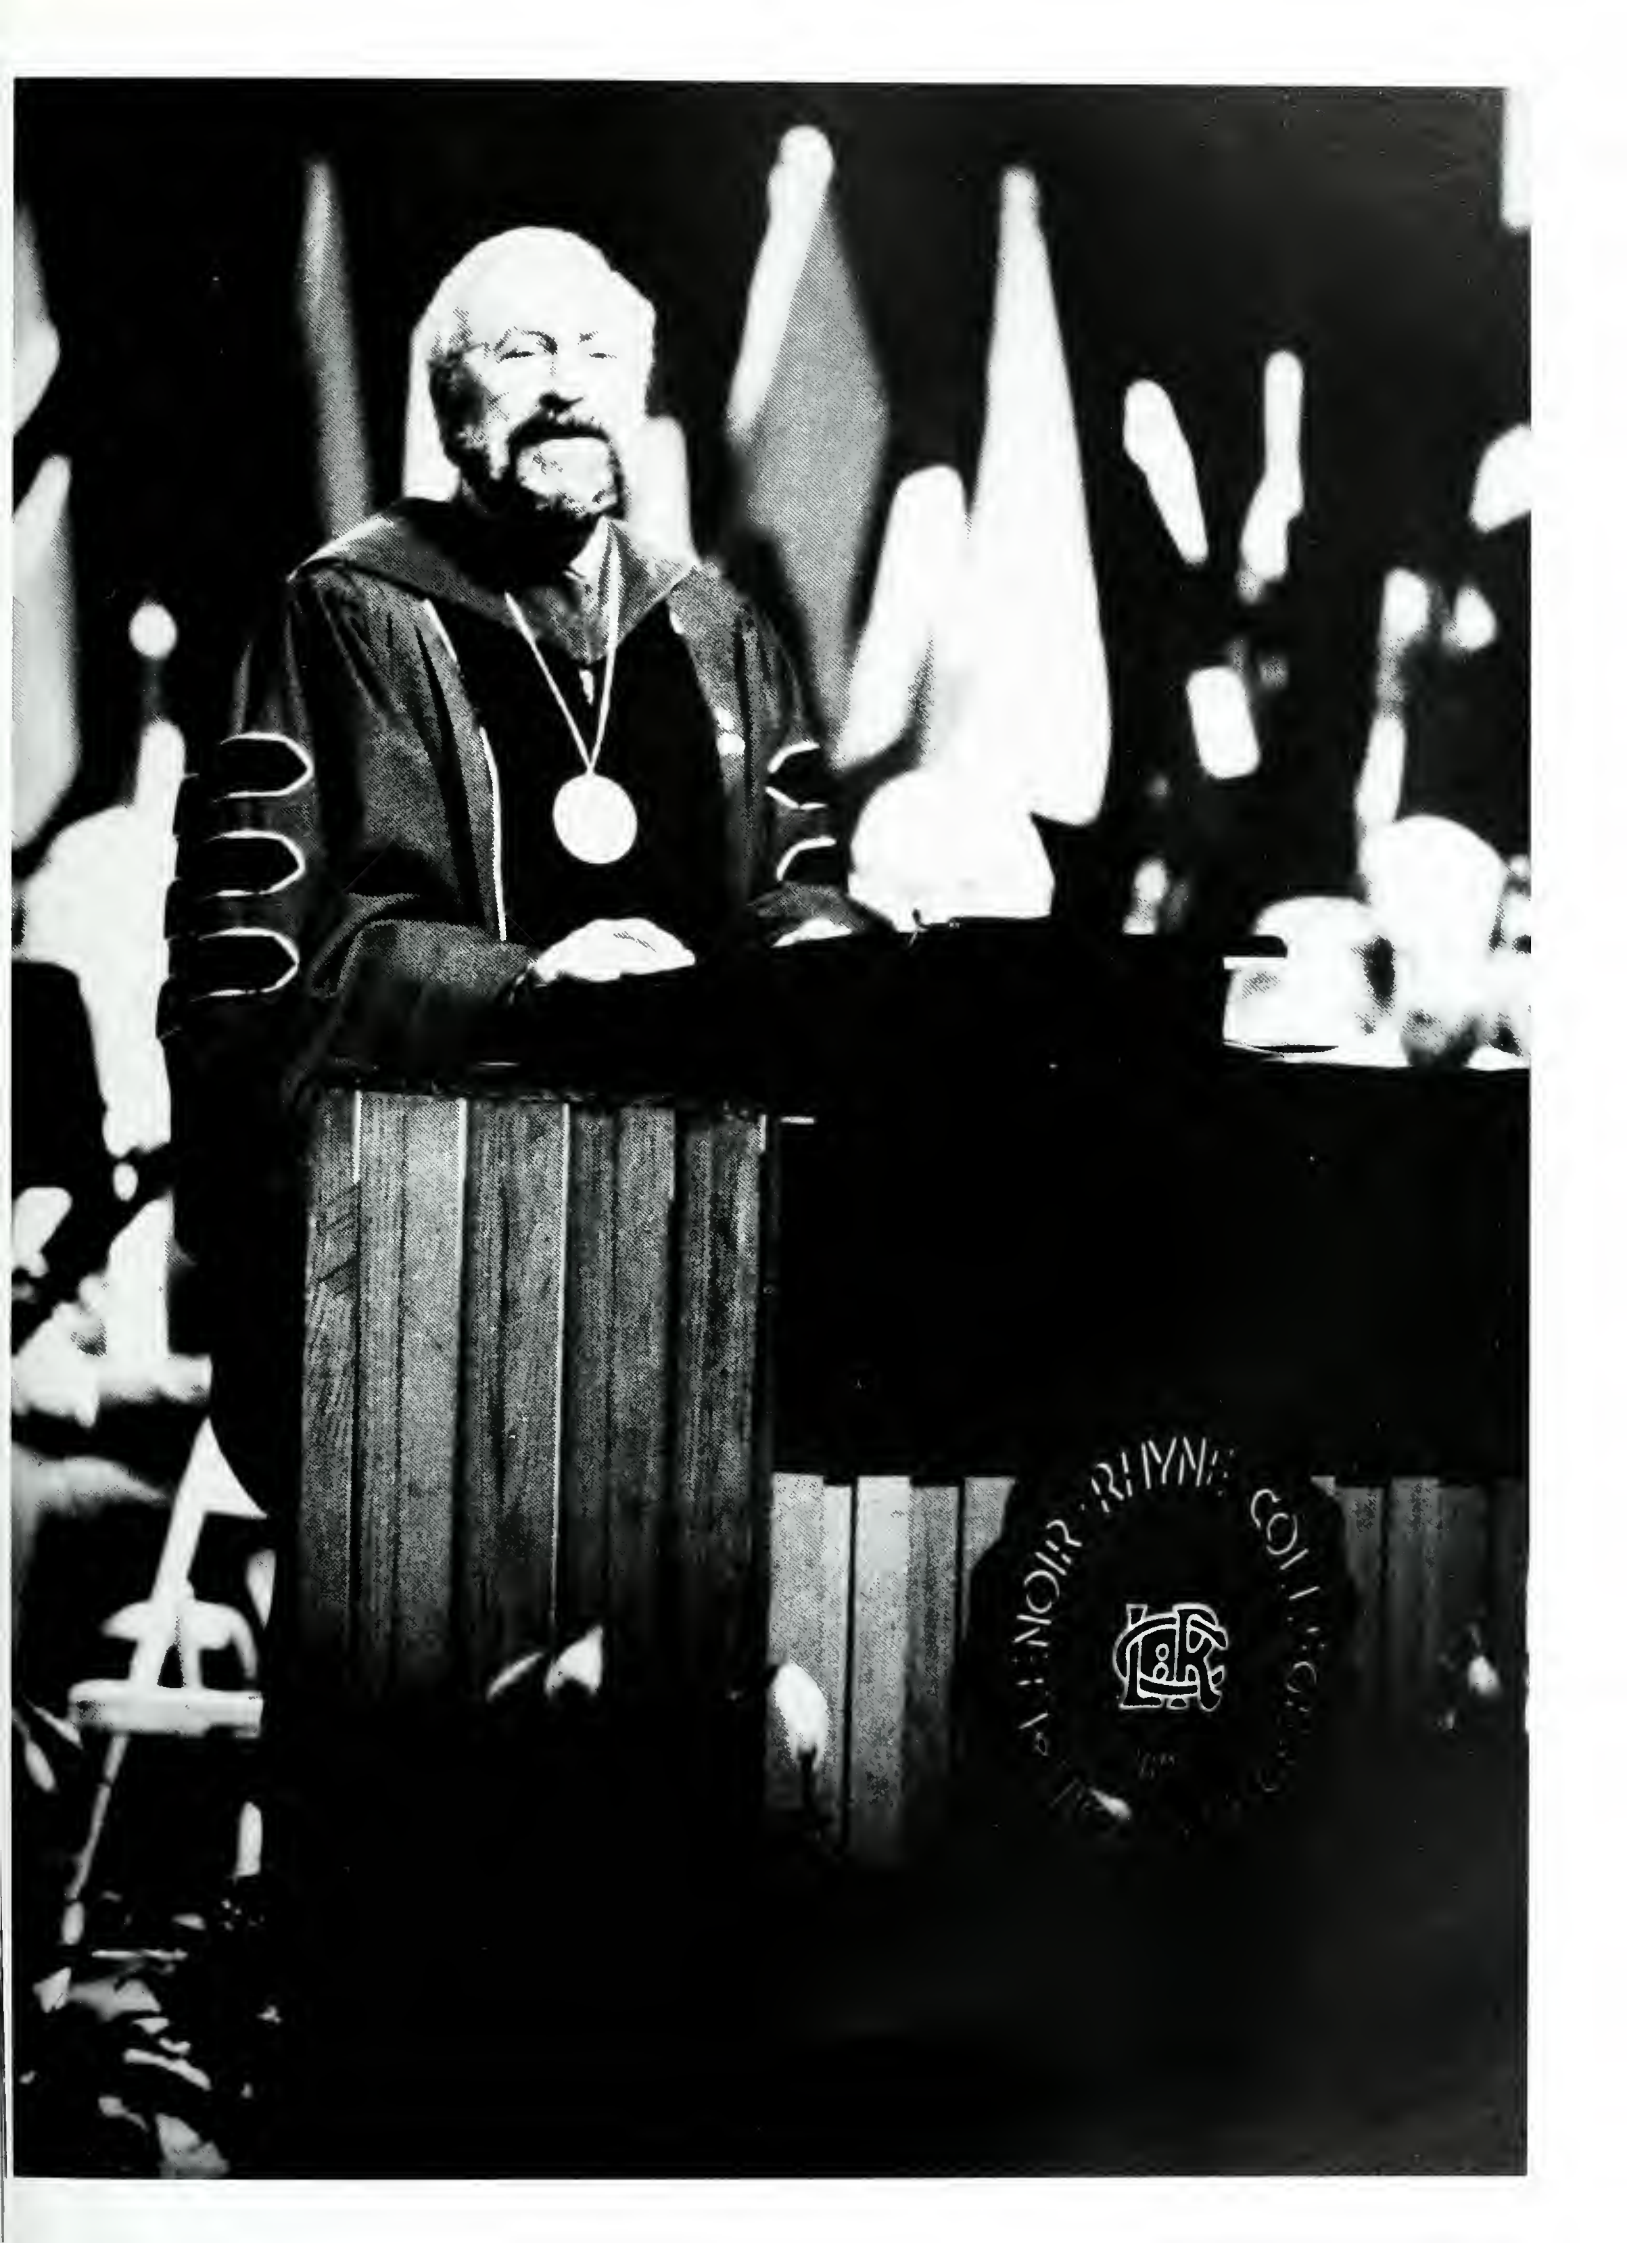

Through his 40 years of faithful service to Lenoir-Rhyne he has clearly personified the spirit of the institution. It is with great honor that the Class of 1996 joins with the Class of 1960 in dedicating the '96 HACAWA to "the Man,"

HOMECOMING '95

Saturday, October 14 will be remembered as Homecoming at Lenoir-Rhyne and it will likewise be remembered as a day it rained virtually the entire day. Everything and everyone was wet!

The Homecoming parade, with a theme of "That's Entertainment," was held but everything was soaked. Sigma Kappa sorority (opposite top) took first place honors.

Indoor ceremonies marked the dedication of the Shaw Plaza in honor of the late Jerry Shaw and the dedication of the street in front of the gymnasium in memory of the late Clarence Stasavich.

The Hall of Fame ceremony was held in Monroe auditorium and was one of the day's few activities to be dry.

The Bears, playing in rain and mud, turned the field into swells of broken grass and sod, and beat Wingate College in the process.

COMMUNITY HONORED MAY 3

William Shuford

The Lenoir-Rhyne College community held its annual Honors Convocation on May 3, 1995 in P.E. Monroe auditorium.

President Ryan LaHurd presided with College Pastor, Andrew Weisner, offering prayer. Awards were presented by SGA President Eric Childers, Dean of Students Dr. Edward Lewis, Academic Dean Dr. Robert Spuller, and Director of Honors Program Dr. Larry Yoder.

Dr. Richard Mazak of the Physics Department received the Raymond Morris Bost Distinguished Professor Award. Dr. Larry Yoder was named to the Roediger Distinguished Professorship and Miss Iris Moore of the College Business Office was named the Non-Academic Employee of the Year.

Angela Earnhardt, editor of the College yearbook, announced that Dr. William Shuford of the Spanish Department was the recipient of the 1995 dedication.

The SGA Association Award went to Mrs. Shirley Huffman, the SGA Leadership Award to John Houchins and the SGA President's Award to Dr. Ryan LaHurd.

Among the many awards given were the Deaf Awareness Award to Dr. Ryan LaHurd, the Sign Troupe Award to Kim Terry, the Journalism Award to Genny Haring, and the Dean's Award to Tammy Stinson.

The Freshman Medal was awarded to Brian Kaesar, the Cecilia Williard Science Medal to Chris Bowen, the Biology Achievement Award to Ann Drum, with the Achievement Award in Chemistry and the Achievement Award in Math also going to Ann Drum.

Theta Xi fraternity and Sigma Kappa sorority were named the Greek organizations of the year, Pi Kappa Phi fraternity and Kappa Delta sorority received the President's Cup in intramurals, and Daron Montgomery and Christine Olson the individual awards in intramurals.

Ross Campbell received the Economics Award, Kevin Downing and Shawn Charles were awarded the Political Science honor, Kathryn Glander got the Keiser English Award, and Mimi Frankman received the Poetry Award.

The Sam Baker Scholarship in drama went to Mimi Frankman, the Cromer Award in classics went to Amy Berry, Julie Ennis got the Brandon History Award, and Steve Periconi was the recipient of the Greenholt Award in History.

Brian Kaesar

Kelleigh Potts received the Actor's Award, Sarah Hinlicky got the Freshman Drama Award, Rosalie Graeber was honored with the Deal Playmaker Award, David McManus got the Andrews Drama Award, and Nancy Rowe and Adrian Smith were recipients of the Berry Memorial Art Award.

Joanna Dyson received the Sutton Phi Beta Lambda Award, Amy Wood got the Taylor Award, Heather Church was the recipient of the Houston Award in Nursing, Amy Holbrook got the P.E. Leadership Award, and Angela Warren was honored with the Mu Alpha Award.

Jenny Capps got the Psi Chi Award, Terry Bradford received the Psychology Award while Jenny Elders was honored with the Sociology Award, Kaarina Kelley received the Hickory Music Club Scholarship, Michael Langford got the Club Award, Mike Taylor received the St. Cecilia Music Club Award, and Dana Erdmann and Christine Olson received the Rudisil Awards in Christian Education.

PLAZA HONORS JERRY SHAW

An area near Cromer Center has been designated "Shaw Plaza" with a bronze plaque.

Shaw, Lenoir-Rhyne's first black student athlete, received his degree in 1971. He became an assistant football coach and residence director for Morgan Hall.

He was a friend, counselor, and role model for many students at the college. He later became student programming director and director of the Cromer Center.

LR HEALTH SERVICES MOVES

With the establishment of a Fraternity Row at Lenoir-Rhyne, there was a shuffle of Student Health Services to a new site.

Formerly at 519 8th Avenue, N.E., the center was relocated at the former residence of the Don Miller family at 517 7th Avenue, N.E.

GRADUATION, 104

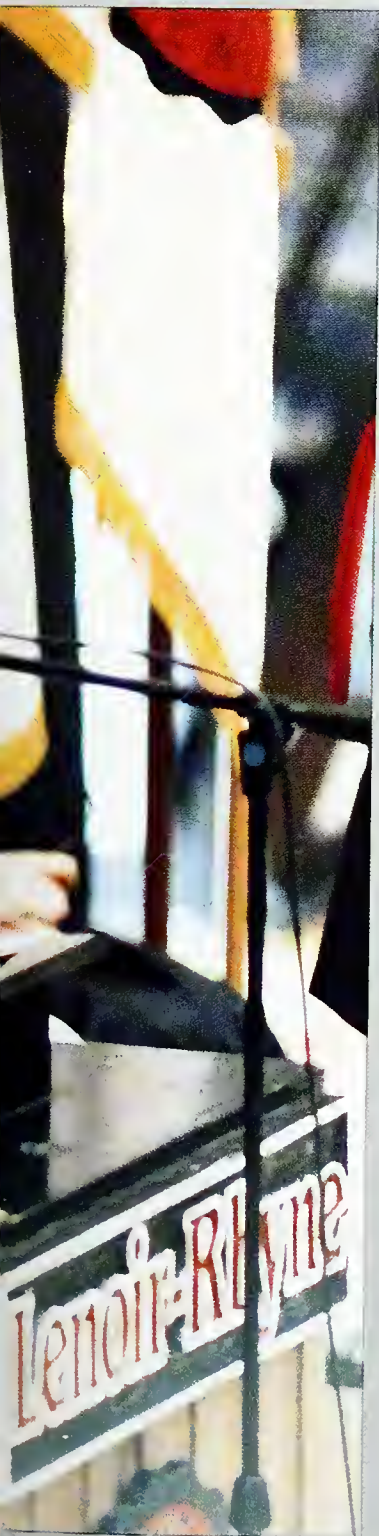

Lenoir-Rhyne College held its 104th graduation exercises on May 13, 1995.

The baccalaureate service was held in Monroe auditorium at 9:30 am. Dr. Carl Ficken, Jr., Director of the Lutheran Center in Atlanta, was homilist. Dr. Ficken urged the graduates to "find yourself a community of God's people. You will know God's presence."

Commencement was held at 1:30 pm in Shuford gymnasium. The guest speaker (seen below) was Mrs. Pauletta Pearson Washington, a former Lenoir-Rhyne student, and now a professional actress and singer. Mrs. Washington joined President Ryan LaHurd in congratulating seniors as they received their degrees.

First honor graduate was Laura West (seen opposite above). Second honor graduate was Jerry Falls.

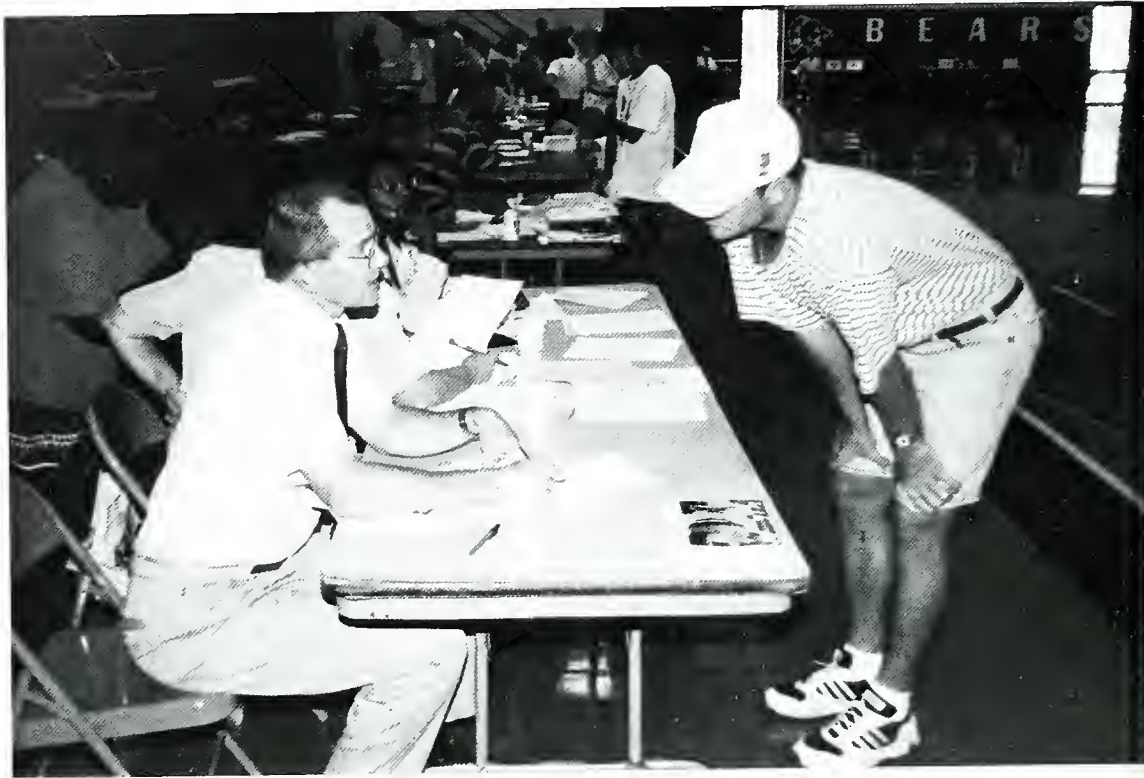

PROLOGUE, '95

PIECING IT TOGETHER

During the weekend of August 26, the prologue leaders welcomed one of the largest freshman groups in years to the LR campus. For four days the freshmen participated in group activities that helped them develop spirit, meet new people, and begin adjusting to college life. Dan Hench and Tressie Riley coordinated the events that included a lip sync, dancing at Sims BBQ, indoor group activities, registration, and a reception at President LaHurd's home.

DR. LAHURD INSTALLED AS PRESIDENT

Dr. Ryan A. LaHurd, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Dean of the College (Augsburg), was inaugurated as the tenth president of Lenoir-Rhyne College on February 18, 1995.

Greetings were brought from the various constituencies of the college, including Mayor William McDonald, Dr. Naomi Linnell, Dr. Hope Williams, Mr. Eric Childers, Dr. Larry Yoder, Mrs. Elizabeth Cromer Carswell, Dr. William Milholland, and Dr. Mark Menees.

The Lenoir-Rhyne A Cappella Choir and the Wind Ensemble provided the music for the ceremony. College pastor Andrew Weisner offered the prayer.

The formal induction of Dr. LaHurd as president was conducted by Bishop Menees (see below) and Board Of Trustees chairman Milholland (right).

A pre-inaugural program, "Counterpoint, was held in Belk Centrum featuring poetry reading by Dr. Rand Brandes and music by professor Ying Ying Liu (above left). A morning service was held at St. Andrews Church with Bishop Mark Menees presenting the sermon. The faculty is seen (above right) entering the church led by the College Marshal Dr. William Shuford.

The weekend of September 29, many of LR's families came from far and wide to visit their student. Even the rain did not keep family day from being a big success.

The weekend was filled with various activities that included a parents meeting, a gathering with the faculty, a BBQ lunch, and a winning football game against Presbyterian.

MINGES BUILDING RE-DEDICATED

On September 15, Lenoir-Rhyne honored members of the Minges family by rededicating the Minges Science Building. Many improvements had been made to the 37-year old structure, such as the installation of an elevator and a central air-conditioner.

Following the dedication service held in Belk Centrum, everyone took a tour of the renovated building and enjoyed a picnic lunch on the Quad.

THIRD CONFERENCE ON AQUINAS/LUTHER

The third annual Aquinas/Luther Conference was held at Lenoir-Rhyne on October 29-31 in the Belk Centrum.

The conference explored "On Morality " with special reference to the Papal Encyclical "Veritatis Splendor."

Under the direction of the Center for Theology and Dr. Michael McDaniel, Director, the conference featured a host of speakers. The Reverend John Neuhaus (right) was the keynote speaker. Reverend Neuhaus is editor-in-chief of FIRST THINGS: A MONTHLY JOURNAL OF RELIGION AND PUBLIC LIFE.

WRITERS VISIT CAMPUS FOR "OWN WORDS"

"In Their Own Words," the Lenoir-Rhyne College Visiting Writers Series, offered a host of talent for 1995-96.

Guests included novelist Steven Yount, poet Kathryn Stripling-Byer, poets Betty Adcock and Julie Howard, novelist Kaye Gibbons (shown at right), writers Mark and Gail Mathabane, novelist Todd McEwen , Irish writer Marie Heaney, and novelist Ruthanne McCunn.

Dr. Rand Brandes heads the Writers Steering Committee.

LR GROUP VISITS PERU

Dr. Edward Lewis and a delegation of students visited Peru during the summer as part of an international service project.

For two and one-half weeks the group worked on starting the foundation for a medical clinic in Arequipa, Peru.

COLLEGE HAS FRATERNITY ROW

Lenoir-Rhyne has had social fraternities since the 1950s, but only recently has located a "fraternity row." The appearance of the Theta Chi House began to put the pieces into place.

Oakview Hall, located next to the Cromer Center, was moved last spring to its present site across from the Mauney Music building. In the picture below, the house is seen as it has been placed by the movers.

After months of hard work, the House is seen above in its present state. The Dedication and Blessing of the House by the college pastor is seen in the picture left.

In the picture to the right, three of the four fraternity houses may be seen. To the far left is the former Medical Services building which is now the Pi Kappa Phi House. In the center is the Theta Chi House. And on the far right may be seen the edge of the new Tau Kappa Epsilon House. A parking lot adjoins the TKE House and on the opposite side of this is the Theta Xi House, which was the first of the houses on the Row.

THE SPIRIT OF THE YEAR

On September 28, 1995, an accord was signed between Israel and the PLO that would end Israel's military occupation of West Bank cities and lay the foundation for a Palestinian state.

President Clinton (center) presided over the ceremony in the East Room of the White House.

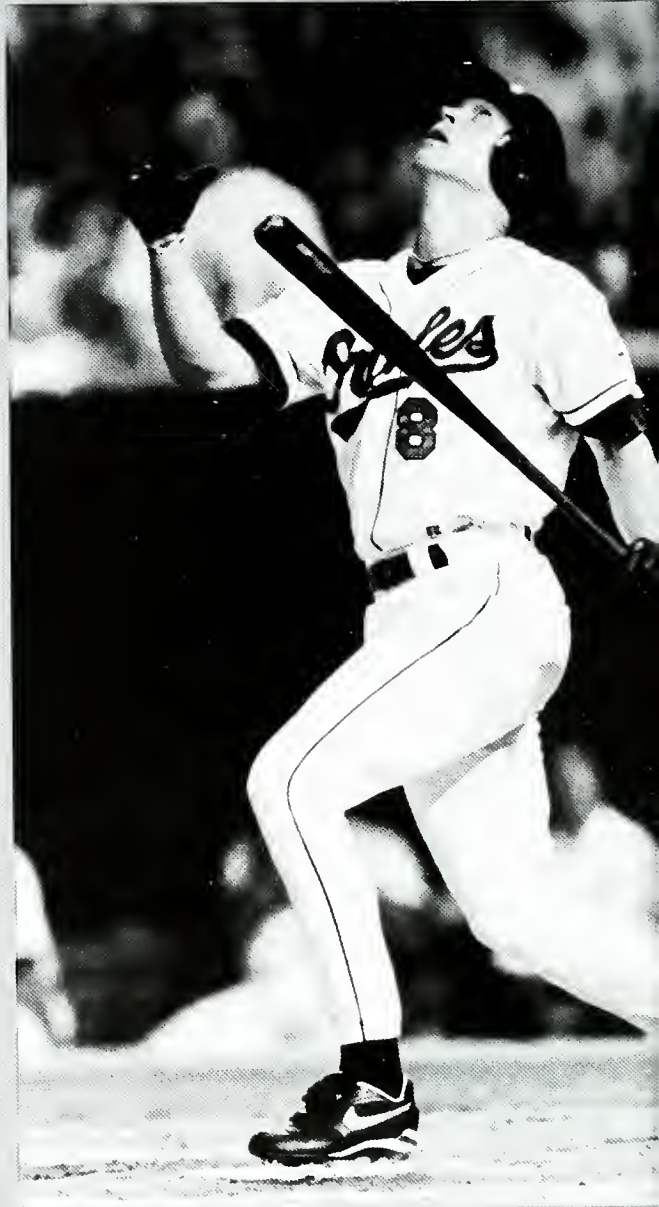

The agreement outlines the process for gradual withdrawal of Israeli troops and transfer of governing authority for Palestinian self-rule in 30 per cent of the West Bank.

Sadly, Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin (left) was assassinated by a Jewish extremist in Israel on November 4, 1995.

Opposite page: The Cleveland Indians and the Atlanta Braves squared off in the first World Series in two years.

The Braves won the Series in six games, after taking a two-games-to-none lead in their home park. They won the Series on their return to Atlanta with a 1-0 victory marked by David Justice's home run and the one-hit pitching of Tom Glavine, who was named Series MVP.

Right: The gathering in Washington, D.C. on October 16, 1995 was tremendous. Hundreds of thousands of African-American men converged on the nation's capital in response to the call from Louis Farakhan, the Nation of Islam's leader, to rally for unity and brotherhood.

It was the fourth-largest demonstration in Washington's history and the largest predominately African-American gathering.

Opposite left: The murder trial of O.J. Simpson ended. Not guilty. It took the jury less than four hours to reach a verdict in the sensational trial that lasted eight months. The jury of 10 women and two men found that Simpson did not kill his former wife, Nicole Brown Simpson and her friend, Ronald Goldman in June, 1994. Center: Baltimore Orioles shortstop Cal Ripken marched into the record books when he broke Lou Gehrig's record and played in 2,131 consecutive baseball games. Ripken broke the record on September 6 and went on to play in 2,153 games. Left: Miss Oklahoma, Shawntel Smith, got an extra birthday present for her 24th birthday: she was crowned Miss America.

The civil war in the former Yugoslavia continued as the 1995-96 year began. There was still no peace among the Croats and the Serbs and the Muslims. The prospect of peace loomed after talks in Dayton, Ohio, in late 1995. Also the prospect loomed of U.S. troops being involved in U.N. forces to police a truce.

Above: In September, 1995, Colin Powell embarked on a cross-country book tour to promote his autobiography, "My American Journey." As he did this, he also promoted the notion that his next journey might be along the campaign trail, seeking the presidency of the United States in 1996.

But shortly afterward, General Powell withdrew from the prospect of a presidential campaign for 1996 but did not rule out a bid for the White House at a future date.

Opposite top: On April 19, 1995, a car bomb exploded in Oklahoma City, destroying the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building and killing scores of men, women, and young children.

Shortly after the explosion, Timothy McVeigh, A Gulf War veteran, was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon. Two days later, he was charged as a suspect in the bombing.

Opposite below: Hootie and the Blowfish, a band with a mellow sound, includes Darius Rucker, vocals and guitar, Mark Bryan, guitars, Dean Felber, bass, and Jim Sonefeld, drums. The South Carolina band has a large following. The group won an MTV Award for best new artists for their video, "Hold My Hand."

"ROMEO AND JULIET" ENDED YEAR

The Spring production of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers was a strong offering of William Shakespeare's masterpiece, ROMEO AND JULIET.

Presented in the Belk Centrum, the classic was directed by Donegan Smith with set design by Kent Buess. Katrina Bernsdorff was stage manager and Dave McManus was master electrician.

Frank Moshier appeared as Romeo with Karen Littlecott as Juliet. Other cast members included Brady McPhail as Montague, Mimi Frankman as Lady Montague, Kent Buess as Mercutio, and Brian Amend as Benvolio.

Christopher Matosky was Capulet, Jean Cauthen was Lady Capulet, Mark Rose was Tybalt, Sarah Hinlicky was the Nurse, Nate Bickford was Sampson, and Brian McGonagle was Gregory.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND "RADIO HOUR"

Large crowds attended the Lenoir-Rhyne College summer production of 1940s RADIO HOUR.

Presented in the Belk Centrum on August 3-5, 10-12, the musical was written by Walton Jones. The summer theatre show was directed by Dr. Ellis Boatmon with music direction by John Coffey and choreography by Dr. Jane Jenkins. Technical direction was by David McManus, with students David White as sound technician and Mimi Frankman as stage manager.

The cast included LR professor Dr. Don Hayes, postal services chief Roland Oesterreich, and a host of LR graduates including Mark Rose, Cathy Stallings, Reese Land, and Julie Huffman.

The cast also included Jonathan Clark, Jason Eckard, Mark Adderholdt, Amy Young, Jeff Brooks, Ben Honeycutt, Viki Ryan, Kecia Clark, Susan U'Ren, Brenda Ritchie, and Jill Propst.

The musical was the story of a broadcast (December 21, 1942) to a live audience and beamed overseas to U.S. forces fighting in World War II. The show included songs of the 1940s as well as popular commercials of the period.

"ODD COUPLE" HAD FEMALE LEADS

The opening show of the 1995-96 Playmaker season was Neil Simon's comedy, THE ODD COUPLE. The LR version had the two leads being played by women rather than men. Directed by Donegan Smith with Kent Buess as technical director. THE ODD COUPLE featured Cindy Bonacum and Sarah Hinlicky in the leads.

Right: Jeff Payne, stage manager, is seen during a rehearsal with Eileen Denninger and Cindy Bonacum discussing a scene. Below: From left, Kelli Trail, Eileen Denninger, Sarah Hinlicky, Abigail Fuller, Kim Cox, and Cindy Bonacum. Opposite left: Cindy Bonacum feels the tension of having a houseguest. Opposite right: Cindy Bonacum and Sarah Hinlicky argue about Sarah's aches and pains. The cast also included Mark Taylor and Carlos Borges.

The Playmakers presented Terrence McNally's hilarious comedy, IT'S ONLY A PLAY, January 25-February 4 in the Belk Centrum.

Directed by Donegan Smith, with Kent Buess as technical director, the play was an inside look at theatre people awaiting a review of their show.

The cast included Jeff Payne, Emily Nettnin, Frank Moshier, Jr., Mike Arning, Erin Parker, Michele McCourt, Nathan Yoder, and Matt Schafer.

NAMING HONORS STASAVICH

The city of Hickory and Lenoir-Rhyne College have declared a segment of Fifth Street, N.E., to be "Stasavich Place." It is a block-long thoroughfare in front of Shuford Physical Education Complex.

Stasavich, a native of Illinois, graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne in 1935 and was a member of the football team. He returned to LR in 1938 to serve on the coaching staffs in football, basketball, and tennis. After service in the Navy during World War II, he returned to LR where he built a football dynasty, that included the National Championship in football (NAIA) in 1960. His teams won nine conference titles from 1946-1961. His record was 120-37-7.

Coach Stasavich was inducted into the college Sports Hall of Fame posthumously in 1977. He died in 1975.

GREEK AWARDS

The 29th annual Greek Awards ceremony was held on May 1, 1995 in the Belk Centrum. Dr. Ellis Boatmon, founder of the awards in 1967, was master of ceremonies.

Kevin Downing (Pi Kappa Phi) was chosen Man of the Year and Amy Holbrook (Zeta Tau Alpha) was named Woman of the Year. They are shown above pictured with President LaHurd.

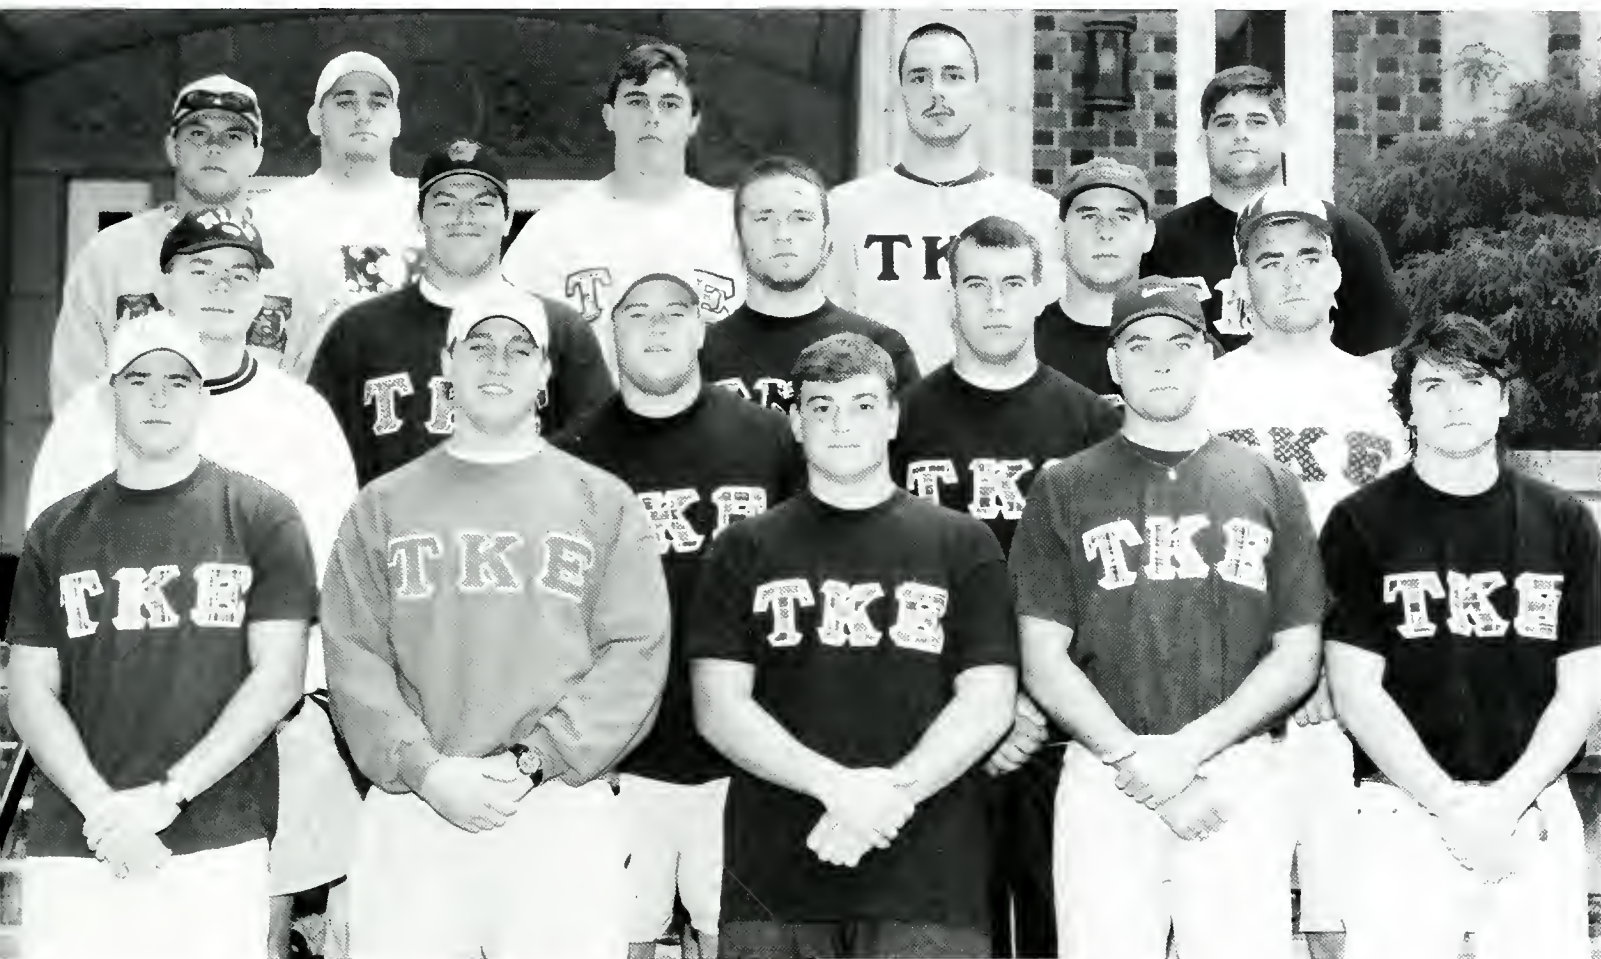

Also honored were Ross Campbell and Erika Jahn (Seniors), Wade Wolgemuth and Cindy Bonacum (Juniors), Brian Chandler and Susan Stogner (Sophomores), and David Johnson and Tressie Riley (Pledges).

A large number of Greeks were honored, including the Made-A-Difference Awards (left) which went to Ed Agnoli, Jimmy Brittain, Joanna Dyson and Dr. Michael McDaniel.

MEET A BEAR

The HACAWA is pleased to present twenty members of the student body, with brief sketches describing why they came to Lenoir-Rhyne and what the college means to them. They represent a cross-section of the areas from which LR draws students.

REX MARLEY

Birthday: 10-21-73
 Year: Senior
 Hometown: Wilkesboro, N.C.
 Major: Business
 Favorite teacher: Dr. Ellis Boatmon
 Why chose LR: "Location near the mountains and the business program, but most of all, the baseball program."
 Memorable moment: "Winning 2 of 3 games at Elon in 1994 and being named all-conference"
 Favorite place: Hams
 Message: "If you're going to participate in life, do it with intensity. If you don't you might as well die. Feel the difference?"

KARA POMICTER

Birthday: 8-25-75
Year: Junior
Hometown: Slatington, Pa.
Major: Sports Medicine
Why chose LR: "I came to LR so I could study sports medicine and participate in cross country."

 Message: "Success begins with your own will."

JASON HERMAN

Birthday: 8-10-75
 Year: Junior
 Hometown: Conover, N.C.
 Major: History
 Favorite teacher: Dr. Philip Blosser
 Why chose LR: "The small campus atmosphere made me feel recognized as a person."
 Memorable moment: "The day I received my bid from Theta Chi fraternity."
 Favorite place: Hickory Motor Speedway
 Message: "A useless life is an early death. Always be ambitious."

BEAR WORDS

BEARS — the nickname for LR's athletic teams.

BEAR'S LAIR — the campus snack bar serving hamburgers and pizza.

BID DAY — the day each semester when the fraternities and sororities hand-out invitations-to-membership.

CENTER — refers to the Cromer College Center, the hub of the campus.

CENTRUM — a gift of the Belk Foundation, a small auditorium seating over 200 people.

CHAPEL — religious services held each Wednesday at 10 a.m.

CONVO — refers to the convocations and forums held on a Monday or a Friday and presenting varied programs to the college community.

CUB — the student handbook.

FAIR STAR OF CAROLINE — the Alma Mater of Lenoir-Rhyne College.

HACAWA — the college yearbook. It is a combination of the first letters of the Halls, the Campus, and the Walls of Lenoir-Rhyne.

HOMECOMING — that annual event when alumni return to campus and join with the college community in a day of celebration capped with a football game in the afternoon.

HOMER'S — a local sandwich shop on Highway 127 that is an LR tradition.

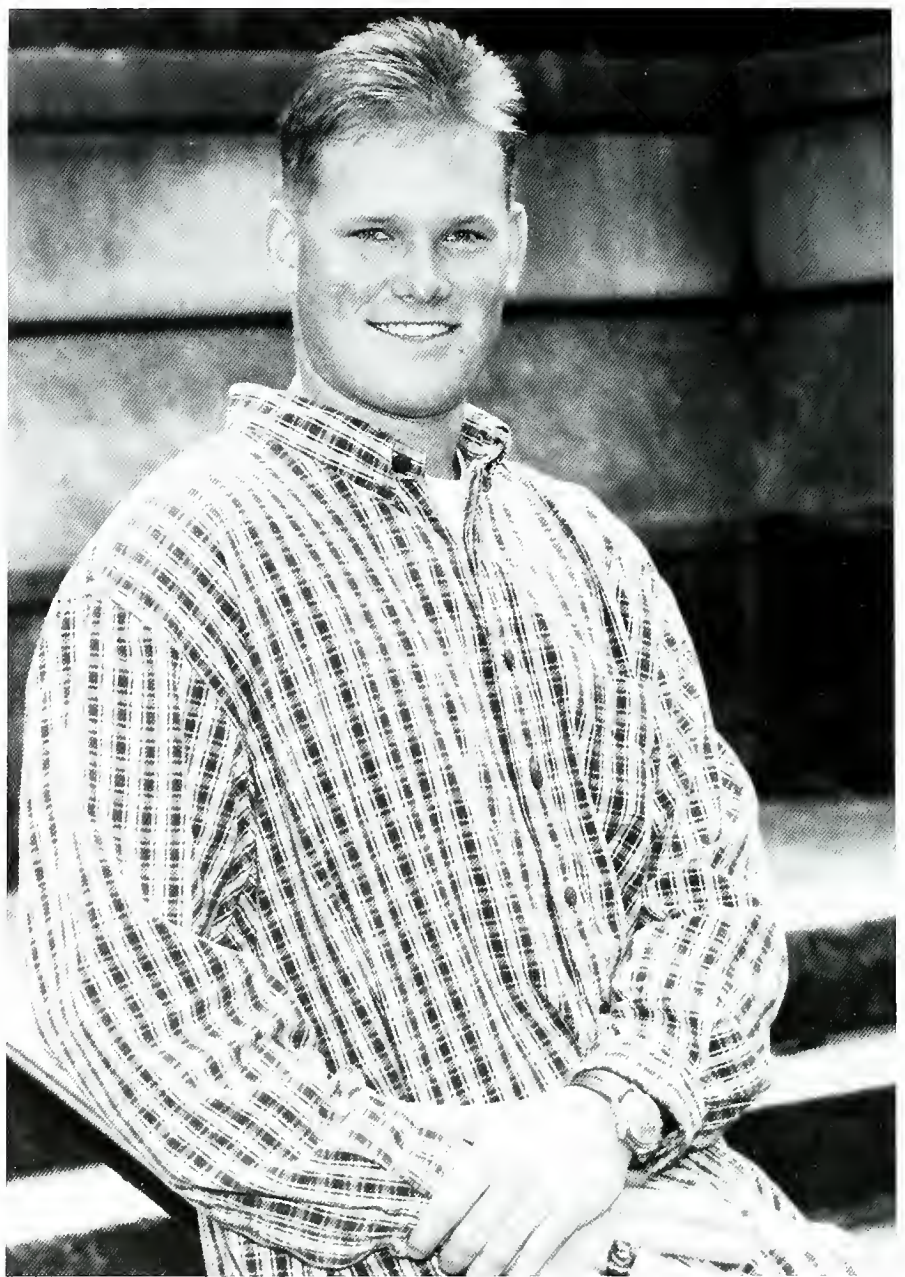

JOE BEAR — the college mascot. Joe was once a live bear, but in recent years has been a student in a bear costume.

LENOIR-RHYNEAN — the weekly college newspaper.

PLAYMAKERS — the outstanding drama troupe on campus.

PROLOGUE — the orientation program where new students are assisted in their adjustments to college.

SHAW PLAZA — the brick and concrete entrance to the Cromer Center that is a popular gathering place. Named for the late Jerry Shaw.

IN MEMORIAM

The human race forms a family and we feel the loss of anyone from this bond.

During the past year the Lenoir-Rhyne family lost those listed below. Each formed a lasting link in their love and service to the college. We are richer for their lives and gifts.

At the heart of the Christian faith is the knowledge that our parting is only brief and that our bonds will be renewed again.

So, a short farewell to these good friends in the faith that we shall again meet in God's loving family.

Spirit comes from our heart and gives us the ambition and motivation to be who we are. It is this spirit and dedication from many people that have made this year's HACAWA a success.

I wish to thank David Thomas (Director of Photography) for contributing the color and life that his pictures brought to this book. Without his help many events would have been left unrecorded.

Once again, we owe much to the professional photography of James Labrenz. Many of these pictures in the HACAWA are his.

We also wish to thank others who provided pictures for the yearbook. Thanks especially to Dr. Russell Benton, who caught many moments on film; to Dr. Edward Lewis for his assistance; and the folks of the LR Public Relations Bureau, who provided both pictures and copy.

Many thanks to Mrs. Dottie Crafton for being one step ahead of me. Her typing and other skills were very much appreciated.

Dom Donnelly joined the sports information staff this year and was a tremendous help to us with copy and pictures. We appreciate the personal interest he showed in the HACAWA and was ever willing to help any way he could. Thanks also to Wade Wolgemuth and David Johnson for their help with the sports section.

Much appreciation to Phil Robinson, whose basketball shots fill our pages; to Vice President Skip Duhlstine for his help; to Iris Moore for her assistance with business matters; and the ladies in the business office who lent a hand with the distribution of the HACAWA.

A deep sense of appreciation goes to Bill Hall, the field representative for the Jostens Company. Bill's personal touch in all he does makes working with him a sheer joy.

Dr. Ellis Boatmon was my advisor for the yearbook. His many years of yearbook experience helped to inspire the spirit of this book. Many yearbooks have been produced because of his selfless hard work and dedication for this institution. And for this, Lenoir-Rhyne owes him many thanks. My appreciation and thanks for all his help. He is truly an inspiration to his profession.

To my parents: thank you for teaching me to find the spirit in my heart to make all of my dreams come true. Your support and understanding have made me the person I am today. I will love you always.

Finally, to the spirited class of '96, I hope life rewards each of you with joy and fulfillment. May your past memories and experiences of Lenoir-Rhyne guide you through your future endeavors. Good luck to you all and fill your life with spirit.

God Bless You.
Angie
